IN RE: TCG OMAHA	DOCKET NO. RPU-00-2 (TF-00-15)
-------------------------	-----------------------------------

ORDER GRANTING REQUEST TO WITHDRAW
PROPOSED TARIFF AND CLOSING DOCKET

(Issued June 22, 2000)

On January 25, 2000, TCG Omaha (TCG) filed a proposed access and network interconnection services tariff. The proposed tariff language is very similar to language filed by AT&T Communications of the Midwest, Inc. (AT&T), in a proposed tariff filed on May 28, 1999. TCG is a partnership owned by AT&T. The AT&T tariff filing was identified as Docket No. RPU-99-3 and the issues in that filing were then before the Utilities Board (Board) for consideration.

On April 3, 2000, the Board docketed TCG's proposed tariff for further investigation, pending the Board's final action in Docket No. RPU-99-3.

On May 5, 2000, TCG filed a request to withdraw its proposed changes. No person has filed any objection to TCG's request. The Board will grant TCG's request, without prejudice.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

The May 5, 2000, request to withdraw the proposed access and network interconnection services tariff filed by TCG Omaha on January 25, 2000, identified as TF-00-15 and docketed for investigation as Docket No. RPU-00-2, is granted. Docket No. RPU-00-2 is closed.
